

AFTW Practice Area Reporting Points – Phoenix Area

Note 1: Reference to airports & nav aids (8-pt compass direction + distance), as well as marked Visual Reporting Points & major geographic features, can also be used.

Note 2: Aircraft are requested to call when entering or leaving, and periodically otherwise.

Note 3: Training aircraft frequently operate at or near all airports & nav aids on the TAC, including use of published and unpublished practice instrument approaches.

Note 4: Sector lines are suggested for maintaining separation between nearby points. Sectors may be split vertically (often about 5,000' MSL), or subdivided by mutual agreement between pilots.

Note 5: Aircraft maneuvering below 1500' AGL should remain clear of uncontrolled & private airport traffic patterns.

Major Separators of Practice Areas:

- |                          |  |
|--------------------------|--|
| 1. NW & NE Areas         | PXR 359 degree radial (V327-562-567) runs over KSDL & Carefree             |
| 2. NE & SE Areas         | East Mesa & Apache Junction, including foothills west of Superstition Mtns |
| 3. SE & Picacho Areas    | Coolidge (P08) traffic area & railroad along W 111-30-00 alignment         |
| 4. SE & SW Areas         | Interstate 10 and KCGZ airport traffic area                                |
| 5. SW & Rainbow Valley   | Estrella Mtns & Sailport (E68), South past POTER intersection to I-8       |
| 6. Rainbow & Buckeye S   | BXK VOR 180 degree radial  |
| 7. Buckeye North & South | V16 (BXK 262 degree radial)  |
| 8. Buckeye N & NW Area   | BXK VOR 000 degree radial & west edge of A-231                             |

Practice Area Frequencies:

- |                          |   |
|--------------------------|---|
| 1. NW & NE Areas         | 122.75 MHz  |
| 2. SW, SE, Picacho Areas | 122.85 MHz  |
| 3. Rainbow Valley        | 128.925 MHz   |
| 4. Buckeye North & South | 130.625 MHz (west of BXK 000/180 radials & west of A-231) |

Practice instrument approaches usually monitor CTAF or Tower from FAF inbound until landing/ missed approach. Aircraft with two COM radios are requested to monitor Practice Areas whenever possible. FAA requests enroute traffic to monitor 121.5 MHz when possible.

Clear Zones:

Grey "clear zones" are marked in areas where numerous Practice Instrument Approaches, etc., are conducted. Non-approach/ departure traffic should avoid these areas when possible due to increased likelihood of traffic conflicts above 1000' AGL.

Common Users of Practice Areas:

KDVT	NW Area
KGEU	NW, SE, SW Areas
KSDL	NW, NE Areas
KFFZ	NE, SE Areas
KIWA	SE, Picacho, SW Areas
KCHD & P19	SE, SW Areas
KGYR & KBXK	SW, Rainbow Valley and "Buckeye North" & "Buckeye South" areas

Aerobatic boxes marked in red with maximum altitudes are per the A/FD, and may be used frequently or rarely depending on who is authorized to use each one.

Aerobatic aircraft and rotorcraft often have only one COM radio, which may be committed to a different company or "base" frequency.

*Bold, italicized points denote more prominent points, which often have a suggested sector on the diagram.

CONFLICT RESOLUTION – Safely and Professionally

This is a key reason for the existence of the AFTW. Please stay polite and professional – agree to disagree if you must, until a discussion on the ground can take place. Many airspace users are not regular participants of AFTW, but we try to work with everyone.
